

CHURCH NEXT CONFERENCE

Today's church must navigate life and ministry in a rapidly changing world. At the Church Next Conference we'll imagine ministry in a new cultural context as we reawaken a pioneering spirit.

Conference keynote speakers are the well-known and much respected church revitalization authors and thinkers: Ed Stetzer and Rick Richardson. Additionally, breakout presenters and church revitalization leaders will add an abundance of learning and discovery.

Join us as we envision being Christ's light in today's world.
